AFTERNOON DISPATCHES

Blaine will not be a Congressional Candidate from Maine.

The Assassination of Queen Victoria a Hoax—Shipherd Discharged—Watching for the Assassins.

Associated Press Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Blaine has told friends who are personally interested in the Maine Congressional campaign, that he has never thought of becoming a candidate from that State, and does not intend to do anything of the sort.

ASSASSINATION OF QUEEN VICTORIA A HOAX.

A rumor was circulated to-day which created great excitement about the Capitol. It is to the effect that Queen Victoria had been asssinated. The tidings becoming known on the floors of the Houses they caused a lively stampede of Congressmen. The State Department was asked for information. A reply was received stating that the story was rife in the department, but nothing corroborative was received. Inquiry at the English Legation showed that Minister West had also heard the startling intelligence and had at once telegraphed to England for information. He had not, however, any official notification of such a deplorable event, and was inclined to treat the matter as a sorry hoax.

SHIPHERD DISCHARGED.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—Shipherd appeared before the Foreign Relations Committee this morning with a heavy load of documents. The Chairman said the House had demanded copies of all correspondence, papers and other evidence in Shipherd's possession, showing what he did or attempted to do to enforce the claim of the Peruvian Company. Shipherd said he could not furnish such papers and evidence. He was then discharged and no time fixed for his recall.

Watching for Dublin Assassins.

NEW YORK, May 17.—The steamship Scythia has been signaled. She is not expected at the quarantine ground until two o'clock in the morning, and will not be boarded by the health officer until after sunrise. The regulation allows no one to board an incoming vessel before the health officer. Therefore nothing definite is expected before morning of the suspected Dublin assassins on board, if such there be. The officers reported that they would content themselves with watching the Scythia. The Chester A. Arthur, with Pinkerton's detectives on board, was lying at the quarantine at one o'clock this morning, but the authorities believe the efforts of the New York police are merely precautionary, and there is no real ground for suspicion that the Irish assassins are on board. It is not thought that the British authorities have seriously communicated anything to the American police.

U. S. Marshals have made a thorough search of the steamer Scythia, on board of which it was thought some of the Dublin assassins might be concealed. No suspicious persons were discovered. The officers will also search the steamer Indiana, due to-day.

James Vick, the Seedsman, Dead.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 16.—James Vick, the famous seedsman, who was a playmate of Charles Dickens and set type alongside of Horace Greeley, died yesterday of pneumonia.

Greenback Convention.

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 16.—The Greenback State Convention is to be held here Thursday. The opinion is that Thomas A. Armstrong will be nominated for Governor and Henry Carey, Bard or M. F. Davis for Congressman-at-large.

A Steamer on Fire.

DELAWARE BREAKWATER, May 17.—The Mallory Line steamer Rio Grande, from Galveston for New York, with a cargo of cotton, arrived with her cargo on fire in the forehold and amidships. The passengers were transferred to the Italian bark Pepino seventy-five miles south of here. The steamer will probably be sunk to extinguish the fire.

Tramp Fiends.

ST. LOUIS, May 17.—Four tramps, arrested at Collinsville, Ill., confessed that they had robbed and killed a negro Sunday night near Collinsville, and put his body on the railroad track, where it was run over by a train.

Another Double Tragedy.

CHICAGO, May 17. — A Hancock, Mich., special says: Anton Schewauper, a brewer, shot his wife as she lay asleep with her mother yesterday. He shot himself through the head. They are both dead. Jealousy was the cause.

A Work Train Wrecked.

SPIRIT WOOD (D. T.), May 17.—As a work train on the Northern Pacific was bringing the workmen to dinner, an axle to the caboose broke, throwing the train from the track. W. S. Turner, brakeman of Stevens Point, Edward Mroris, of Racine, were instantly killed. A body is under the engine, and it is feared others are missing. Under the wreck the ditch is filled with water. The bodies of Turner and Morris were taken to Jamestown with a number of the seriously wounded whose names have not been secured.

PACIFIC COAST DISPATCHES

George Hearst Announces Himself a Candidate for Governor.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17.—George Hearst publishes a card in the Examiner this morning formally announcing himself as candidate for Governor on the Democratic ticket. He intimates that the overshadowing issue will be the Chinese question, on which his position is pronounced. He promises, if nominated, to use every honorable effort to win the fight, and if elected discharge the duties of the office in the interest of the people.

A FATAL FIRE.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17.—At Orland, Colusa county, this morning, the house of Briggs Flack, was burned. Miss Rice, aged twelve, a sister of Mr. Flack, died in the flames, and Mrs. Rice and child were probably fatally burned.

OTHER LANDS.

Garfield House Home for Working Girls Opened.

LONDON, May 17.—Lowell, the U. S. Minister, opened the Garfield House Home for working girls on the Baxter road to-day.

DAVITT'S MOVEMENTS—UNDER SURVEILLANCE.

Davitt has gone to Paris to meet Egan. The leading Land Leaguers will have a meeting there shortly.

Chatsworth, the home of the Duke of Devonshire, is now under police surveillance. Explosives have been received there.

A VILLAGE BURNED.

PARIS, May 17.—The village of Marcillie has been burned. Eighty-four houses were destroyed and 750 persons are homeless.

DANENHOWER REACHES ENGLAND.

HULL, May 17.—The steamship Hidalgo, with Lieut. Danenhower, Mr. Newcomb, the naturalist, Jack Cole, the insane seaman, and Lorg Sing, the survivors of the Jeannette Arctic expedition, arrived here this morning in good health. The party will proceed on the mid-day train for Liverpool.

A Curious Phase of Washington Official Etiquette.

The appointment of Mr. Chandler to the naval portfolio has developed an interesting phase of Washington social life. It will be remembered that when J. Wilkes Booth was shot the picture of a handsome lady, a reigning society belle, was found on his person. The original of the portrait was Miss Hale, the daughter of a leading politician and statesman, and a lady of whom Booth had become deeply and seriously enamored. What encouragement he had received was not precisely known, but there were enough between them to form the basis of a good many romances, which afterward appeared in the press. Miss Hale afterward became Mrs. Chandler, and is now the wife of the Secretary of the Navy. The same whirligig of time which has brought this about has also made the then young son of the martyred Lincoln Secretary of War. It now appears that to official etiquette it is the duty of the Secretary of War to escort the wife of his Cabinet associate to dinner on state occasions. He must escort the wife of the Secretary of the Navy. Secretary Lincoln, in short, must escort the one time sweetheart of the assassin of his distinguished father.

A Cure for Cancer.

J. B. Williams, Health officer of Alleghany, a gentleman well known in the community, sends the following for publication, hoping to relieve some of the many persons who suffer with cancer: In 1863 a cancer appeared on my left hand. After much suffering and the failure of all other remedies, I had it burned with caustic. In 1864 it developed in my right arm, being more painful than before. I again applied caustic, and suffered terribly in the operation. It remained checked for a while, but again broke out in my right hand. Last spring it grew very fast, the hand becoming so helpless that I had to carry it in a sling. I feared my hand would have to be amputated. Having heard that several persons had been cured by drinking wild tea and poulticing with the tea grounds, I began using wild tea in earnest. I drank nothing else at my meals, and in four weeks my hand was as well as ever. I know two persons in Pittsburg who have been cured of cancer within the past few months by drinking wild tea. Wild tea grows in most of the States and is well known. This remedy should have the widest publicity.—Pittsburg Commercial Gazette.

Daniel Webster is reported to have once used these words: Small is the sum required to patonize a newspaper; amply rewarded are its patrons. I care not how humble and unpretending the gazette which he takes, it is next to impossible to fill it out without putting into it something that is worth the subscription price.

An illustrated article upon the Zuni Indians and Pueblo life, will appear in the June Wide Awake.

ELECTRIC LIGHT.

A most favorable time and opportunity for the introduction of the electric light into this city is the present. Mayor Toberman, at the meeting of the City Council Saturday evening, presented a message advocating the light, and the Council as a body seemed to regard the matter in a very favorable manner, many of the members speaking in its favor. There can be no doubt but it is the coming light. The experimental period has been safely passed and the light is a success. It is cheaper than gas, as well as better. It would give us prestige as a live, go-ahead, progressive town—would advertise and build us up. The San Jose light has been adopted by the Council of that city and is now in successful operation, and we can have the benefit of their experience to guide us. This city is without a contract for lighting the streets, and is simply using the lamps from week to week. The authorities would, presumably, adopt the the light if it were introduced, and the contract for street lighting of itself would prove a profitable one; but aside from this would be the lighting of stores and public buildings, making a growing and lucrative business for the investor. The TIMES has already suggested utilizing the spire of the Presbyterian church as a tower for the electric light, and in a conversation with Rev. J. W. Ellis we were informed that no doubt perfectly satisfactory arrangements could be made to do so. This tower would light the hills and all that part of the city, and, supplemented by two or three others, would be sufficient for the whole city. It is a good business investment for the man or company who will undertake to light Los Angeles by electricity.

TIME TO WAKE UP.

The arrival in San Francisco of the ship Altonower has justly re-awakened the public as to the dangers threatened by the Mongolian horde now being poured upon us. The passengers on her were apparently all in good health, and it would appear that systematic efforts were made to make the health officers believe it. But he was too keen-eyed and sharp-scented to be misled, and after threatening to disinfect the hold of the ship with gases which would destroy life, the Mongolians dragged from under one of the bunks a Chinaman sick with the worst form of confluent smallpox. A few days after three more cases came to light; the day following eight, and the day after that ten more. These were promptly shipped off to the pest house, and the ship quarantined. Of what might have happened had that ship load of heathens reached the shore, we will let the Bulletin tell: "If these Chinese had been allowed to go ashore they would have largely infected Chinatown. To Chinatown Chinese servants repair to smoke opium or play tan. From the same reeking locality issue the vegetable peddlers. The hands of the Mongolian are upon a thousand articles. They milk cows and pick berries. They handle vegetables. They ride on the horse cars. They wash clothes. They make shirts, shoes and coarse clothing. They twist cigars and manufacture tobacco. When disease of any kind effects a lodgment in Chinatown, it radiates in all directions. The story of the Altonower explains why the small-pox has so often been epidemic in this city within the last ten or twelve years. It was partly by such concealment as that frustrated in the case of the steamer in question, that the germs of this fell disease have been so often scattered broadcast. It is noticeable at this time that the mortality in Chinatown is very great. It was seventeen last week, which is fully an increase of 100 per cent. There must clearly be something wrong among them again."

STAR ROUTERS.

It is gratifying to note that steady work is being done in prosecuting the Star route peculators. Dorsey has been brought to the front and released after giving $10,000 bonds. The Administration has an opportunity to win laurels if it carries the prosecutions through to the bitter end, and let the people know we have some one at the head of the Government who is watchful of the people's welfare. To do it is, doubtless, to break away from a class of noisy politicians, but it will be to throw the Administration into the arms of the honest masses, who will stand by it and support it.

VEGETABLES WANTED.

The inquiry is heard on all hands for white men to take the place of the Chinese vegetable venders. And now, that a solid effort is being made to rid the community of the filthy Mongolians, is the time for the white laborers, who are clamorous that the "Chinese must go," to step forward and fill their places and meet the wants of the community by giving us sweet, fresh vegetables, at reasonable figures. The market is ready for the man or men who will come to the front. Who knows of a white man in the vegetable business with whom we can trade?

Vanity Fair ventures the assertion that nowhere in the wide world is society more elevated than in New England.

BISHOP ELDER, of the Roman Church, Cincinnati, forbade his parishioners to go to a picnic on Sunday, affixing the penalty of excommunication.

Advices from the northern part of the State represent that the frosts of last week did great damage to the fruit crops. We have not heard of any damage in the south country, and are sanguine we have escaped all damage. Our show for a fruit yield is all we could desire.

BEANS have made Boston famous. Sunflowers have given Wilde notoriety. Potatoes have made the Irish a celebrated nation. Limburger has done much for the Germans. Make a hash of these, and you have the fundamental principles of American notoriety.

An excellent remedy for chapped hands or face is to bathe them in coarse yellow Indian meal. It softens the skin and gives it a pleasant glow. —Exchange.

A better way to make the face shine with corn meal is to convert it into Johnny cake, then butter well and drop it, well masticated, into the stomach.

Not a day passes but there are from twenty to fifty arrivals from the East, to look at our lovely, promising country, and not a day but more or less are enticed into remaining with us. This fact accounts for the scarcity of dwellings and the large business being transacted at the Recorder's office. We are growing rapidly.

IT has been asserted that Dr. Glenn, the great rancher of Colusa county, was aiming to harvest a million bushels of wheat, and proposed a large premium to his foreman if he did so. We are sorry to learn that the dry north winds have destroyed all prospects of his attaining the maximum quantity, the shrinkage being estimated at 75 per cent.

MR. JOSEPH D. LYNCH, editor of the Herald, returns from San Francisco this morning. Mr. Lynch is prominently mentioned as a candidate for Congressman-at-large, and if there is a man in the southern country to whom the Democracy owe a debt of honor it is to Joseph D. Lynch. For seven years he has edited a Democratic paper in this city and no more staunch advocate of the principles of that party ever wielded a pen. He is a stalwart of the stalwarts, and his party always knows just where to find him. He has claims which the party cannot forego.

Complaint is made that, although notified of the occurrence, the police officers failed to call and investigate the burglary of W. A. Henderson's grocery store on Monday night. Although the loss was fortunately but a trifle, still a thorough investigation of the circumstances might perhaps give a clue to other and more serious robberies.

W. A. Henderson, formerly of San Luis Obispo, opened a cash grocery store at the corner of Spring and Second streets about a month ago. He has by diligent attention to business, and selling goods at a close margin already built up a very satisfactory trade. The public are invited to give him a trial. Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge. See announcement in "New To-Day."

A meeting of fruit-growers will be held at the office of the Water Company, in Orange, at one o'clock P. M. on Thursday, for the purpose of holding an informal conference with B. M. Lelong, Alexander Craw, and other experienced gentlemen, as to the best method of exterminating the enemies of fruit culture. This is a move in the right direction, and should elicit a full and complete investigation into the ravages of the insect pest.

When will the grocers accommodate the public by adding a green-grocery department to their stores. As soon as the farmers and orchardists in the country adjacent ascertain that there is a demand for vegetables raised by white labor at remunerative prices, just so soon will they make a specialty of it, and the people of this city could rely upon having a constant supply. Suppose the grocers should agitate the subject among their farmer customers, and guarantee to purchase what they bring to this market.

A Second Olympic Club—The New Block—Hay Making—Cutting out the Elders—School Matters, etc.

EDITOR TIMES: A meeting of our young men and enterprising citizens was held Friday evening to discuss the question of organizing a club—a second Olympic—to comprise a free reading-room and library, and a gymnasium, billiard-room and other amusements for the use of the members. It was decided to organize such a club, and a committee was appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws, to report at a meeting to be held on Friday evening next. Forty members are already assured, and the list will doubtless be swelled to seventy-five or one hundred.

The iron front of the new brick block was received and put in place last week. The corner store will be completed first, and will be occupied by Mr. H. Cahen. The completion of the balance of the block will be delayed a short time until the new kiln of brick is burned.

Hay-making has commenced in good earnest. The harvesting season will be short, and nearly the entire crop will be cut for hay. Indeed, only an exceptionally well-headed oat field will pay threshing, and it is certain hay will reach, if not surpass, the high figure demanded last winter; it is the opinion of many that the price will reach thirty-five dollars a ton before the end of the year. The facts that the crop is also a failure in many of the other grain-growing counties, and that every farmer, who is able, will hold over his hay and grain, have already forced prices up. We know persons who have refused twelve dollars and fifty cents and fifteen dollars for loose hay in the field. Farmers will not burn their straw this year.

On Tuesday Mrs. Brown was arrested on a charge of keeping a house of ill-fame. She was brought up before Justice Bailey on Saturday, when the trial was postponed until to-morrow (Wednesday), and a change of venue granted to Justice Gannon's Court. Two other inmates of the above house were arrested and imprisoned on Saturday, but on promising to leave town were released. These, together with two others who were threatened with arrest and imprisonment, have betaken themselves to parts unknown.

One of the surest indications of the prosperity and intelligence of a community is the interest taken by the people in school matters. It is very gratifying to note the change for the better now taking place as to our educational facilities. Bolsa Grande district is to vote a tax of $225 to repair their school house; Garden Grove will vote on the question of raising $2,500 to build and furnish a new school house; Mountain View district desires to raise $1,650 to purchase a lot and build a new school house thereon; we understand that Orange is agitating the question of building a $4,000 or $5,000 school house; an election for school trustee will be held in this district on June 3d, at which time will be voted the question of empowering the trustees to sell the old school house and lot.

The imports during the same time amounted to 136,160 lbs. E. J. P.

Query. Why not put an electric light on the top of the spire of the new Presbyterian Church? The church would thereby perform the two-fold use of throwing both physical and spiritual light into dark places. Would not an electric light be a more fitting symbol than Gabriel and his trumpet? TRUMP.

The girls at our depot should be careful how they are vaccinated with virus taken from their lovers' arms. One has taken to swearing, sitting cross-legged, drinking soda, and chewing star tobacco, and when in a quiet mood plays upon the stranded bugle.—San Bernardino Times.

ONE BY ONE.

Another New Grocery and Provision Establishment.

Messrs. Burch & Boal have completed the internal arrangements of their new and elegant grocery store at 71 Spring street, opposite the Postoffice. The store is a substantial brick building, 90 feet deep by 27 wide, with a brick warehouse 29 by 140 feet in the rear. The walls and ceiling are hard finished, and it is a pleasant, commodious store, having all the latest modern improvements for the facilitation of work—for instance, rice, sugar and coffee bins swinging on pivots, patent rope racks and oil tanks, glass front canisters, and last but not least a narrow-guage track running from the street through the store to a Fairbanks scale in the warehouse. The store is painted red, with white trimmings—a new and novel departure, but very attractive.

The new firm will handle staple groceries of every description, provisions, grain, feed, etc., also a fine line of crockery, glassware, wood and willow ware. Mr. A. C. Doan, well and favorably known for over three years past in the American Cash Store, is connected with the establishment, and will be pleased to see his old friends there. Telephone connection with every part of the city will insure the prompt delivery of goods.

Yea Verily.

Once upon a time, when ye Mongolians had become a curse in the land, ye City Fathers rose up in all their might and majesty vowing that there should be no peace to ye loathsome heathen until Los Angeles had become cleansed from the pestilence. And it came to pass that judgment was passed upon them by ye City Fathers, and the decree went forth—ye sons of the Celestial empire must go. And the people rejoiced with a loud voice, saying: Great is the wisdom of the City Fathers who have redeemed us from this evil. But, lo and behold, Ah Toy conspired against the people and with tricks that were not vain and ways that were dark spoke to ye City Fathers, saying; Chinatown alle same Melican town, cleane like new pin, no bad smelle, no smokee opium, no bad China woman, Chinaman heape good, alle same Melican man, and it came to pass that ye City Fathers no longer vowed to remove the pestilence from the land, and the people mourned over the wickedness of Ah Toy, and ye City Fathers exclaiming, behold! how the mighty have fallen, and the leaders of the people have fallen down and departed from the paths of righteousness.

The Warren Case.

H. T. Gage, attorney for the defendant in the case of the People vs. Warren, before Justice Fisher, wherein Mr. Warren is charged with committing assault and battery on Mr. Broad yesterday, asked for a new trial, which was denied. Mr. Gage then denied the jurisdiction of the Court on the ground that the complaint charged the defendant with an offense unknown to the Penal Code of California, namely, that of assault and battery. He claimed that it must be either assault or battery. The case was continued till this morning in order that authorities might be produced.

Almost an Accident.

Mr. R. F. Weiss almost met with an accident yesterday afternoon on Main street by the court house. A horse he was driving to a buggy became unmanageable, and dashed upon the sidewalk, getting outside the shafts, and frightening the lady accompanying him, who dropped her child out on the ground. The horse was making for Mr. Lamb's office, evidently wishing to put himself on record. A crowd gathered around and quelled the equine's curious career, and prevented any further damage. The lady, much frightened, and nearly fainting, was taken into the United States hotel to recover her fright.

Some Rich Specimens.

A few days ago an old Indian woman appeared at Dos Palms station, some one hundred and sixty miles out on the Southern Pacific railroad towards Arizona, and had some specimens of very rich ore, which she claimed to have found in the mountains near by. Some parties sent out a prospector to look for the ledge, who, in his search, fell into one of the mud volcanoes thereabouts and got severely scalded, and to come back none the wiser for his efforts.

The sprinklers made their appearance yesterday and at once laid the dust and the ire of the people. Council stock has gone up to par again and the people see clearly.

AMONG THE ANGELS.

Notes of a Trip to Arizona by a Lady Lawyer.

A Noted Democratic Politician—A Bad Rule o Etiquette Broken—A Day in Los Angeles.

[Correspondence San Jose Mercury.]

LOS ANGELES, May 13, 1882.

ED. MERCURY: Yesterday I left San Francisco and the stupid round of law practice for Tucson, Arizona, for the purpose first of visiting my beloved father, whom I have not seen for three years, and who has quite extensive mining interests in that section, and second, to attend to some law business which a very sensible client (sensible because favorable to women lawyers) saw fit to entrust to my care. Aboard the Oakland boat, by which you reach the Arizona train on the Oakland side, I was introduced to John P. Irish of Iowa, that great Democratic orator and journalist, who has been running for office and always getting defeated for the last quarter of a century. I was surprised to find him so young-looking, and ventured a question to which men are very sensitive. He told me he was thirty-nine years of age. He does not look it. Mr. Irish is a splendid specimen of physical manhood—tall, heavy set, well built, a finely shaped head with a broad brow, clear florid complexion, brown hair and eyes, and married. I was much pleased with his appearance and more with his conversation. He is delighted with California and her people, and especially Los Angeles county. He informed me that he had bought some property in Los Angeles,

JUST FOR THE PLEASURE.

of owning something in the Golden State. He suggested, however, that it would require a million of money to keep up with the style here, that he intended to go home, get the million, and return to California and enjoy the rest of his life amid the orange groves of Los Angeles, under a perpetual democratic administration. We smiled at this last suggestion, and ventured the remark that the Democracy were in the habit of winning their victories in advance of time, which fact the scholarly gentleman might have admitted without doing violence to truth. But we want Mr. Irish to get the million necessary "to keep up with the style here," and we think that the "unterrified" Samuel J. T. and his cohorts had better roll out the "bar'l," put their cause into the hands of Irish, who will carry them through a brilliant campaign, and when the election is an event of the past, and the votes have been counted, he will sit down with the old war-horses contentedly and worship Mammon under a Republican Administration forever more. I had a most enjoyable trip from this city to the "Land of the Angels." A drawing-room palace car, with the conveniences of a first-class hotel, a well filled basket of most excellent lunch, pleasant and congenial fellow travelers among whom were several members of the Texas Press Association, all combined to make us happy. I followed Mr. Pixley's advice to travelers, and

TALKED TO EVERYBODY.

I know that it has long been an accepted rule that a lady traveling without a male protector should carefully avoid speaking to, or permitting strangers to speak to her. I do not like the rule and will violate it upon every opportunity. I have confidence in men and women, and while I journey through this rugged and unfriendly world I will not lose an opportunity to learn who are my fellow travelers, and whither?

Saturday morning at 8 o'clock arrived at Los Angeles; thirty minutes for breakfast. Attracted by the perfume of orange blossoms I strolled along up the street, hoping to find some one who could furnish me with a bouquet. Thinking Los Angeles but a village I was surprised to meet a police officer in full uniform. I was glad to accept his gentlemanly offer to show me around for the few moments I would have until the departure of the train. I had walked but a few blocks until I decided to return to the cars, get my baggage and remain over for a day, that I might see some of the places of attraction of which the officer seemed to be so greatly enamored.

LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR MANSFIELD,

Who would make a good governor, showed me around the city and then to his beautiful home of flowers, æsthetic taste and love. Here I met his charming wife and her accomplished sister, Mrs. Pratt, of San Francisco. Mrs. Mansfield possesses an excellent and cultivated mind, and is a most pleasing conversationalist. We stood at the gate watching the Governor as he gathered for me a bouquet of the loveliest flowers in the world, and I thought, as I noted her tasty morning dress and pretty breakfast cap, and then thought of her regulated home and family and love for her husband and friends, that now I have found my ideal housewife. With a kind good-by, my carriage drove away, and I wished that I might meet with more women like her.

The Branch State Normal School forms one of the many attractions of Los Angeles. It is situated in the south-west part of the city, one mile from the center, looking out over a country of unparalleled beauty; taking in Santa Monica on the west, Compton, Wilmington, Anaheim and Santa Ana on the south—all except the last two named can be seen with the naked eye. Groves of orange, eucalyptus and willow,

BROAD FIELDS OF WAVING GRAIN,

Pretty cottages and palatial mansions presented a shifting scene of handsome views that almost dazzled my vision. The building is a three-story brick, facing to the southwest, and is of the Queen Annie style of architecture.

Mr. Kent, who superintended the rebuilding of our State Normal School, is pushing forward the work with considerable zeal, and informs us that the building will be completed by the time of the opening of the regular term in August. The five acres of ground whereon the building stands was presented by the citizens of Los Angeles to the State without conditions. Sunday morning, 7 o'clock, May 14th, off for Tucson, from where I may again write you. C. S. F.

NORWALK NOTES

NORWALK, May 17.

Norwalk has been very quiet for the last two weeks, the farming part of the community being too busy haying to spend any time foolishly. Our cheese factory is flourishing and have commenced to sell their week old cheese, which is pronounced of good quality by all. Being very firm, it will take the lead for shipment to Arizona and all such warm climates. I was much amused with the correspondent "J." in his story, "George Washington and me," which was in the TIMES over a week ago, to think he had likely got the name of his horse learned by this time; also, to see how he avoids saying anything about how he went coasting down that road on end, without any sled.

Mr. Weesner, with his photographic car, left here for Westminster yesterday after a six weeks stop here. TUT.

The Taylor Comedy Company and Female Silver Cornet Band will arrive to-morrow, giving three performances—Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday matinee. They have a number of novelties with them—trained birds, dogs, etc. They will give a street parade on Friday and a free exhibition of rope walking by the birds at sundown. See advertisement.

Gilchrist is happy once more, and wears the lapel of his coat pinned back all the time now. He is excusable as the "Boss of the Ten" is a pretty medal. It was designed by Mr. Hurlbut.

This evening there will be a regular communication of Cœur de Lion Commandery, No. 9, Knights Templar. There will be work in the Red Cross.
